- Beloved, now let us offer unto God our prayer of dedication, using the litany which is printed in your bulletin. Praise be to God.

- Blessed be the Lord God, for He has visited and redeemed His people.

- Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord.

- Blessed be the name of the Lord.

- Let us dedicate ourselves, our symbols, and our possessions to Almighty God.

- Amen.

- Our heavenly father, we offer and dedicate unto thee, and to the work of thy kingdom, this money which we now present.

- We pray that it may glorify thee and the rest of mankind.

- To bear witness to our faith in the eternal union of knowledge and religion set forth in the teaching and character of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

- We dedicate this space, the symbol of our university.

- To aid in the advancement of learning in all lines of truth. To aid in the defense of scholarship against all false notions and ideals. To aid in developing a Christian love of freedom and truth. To aid in promoting a sincere spirit of tolerance. And to aid in the discouragement of all partisan and sectarian strife.

- We dedicate this to thy symbol of the office of the president of Duke University.

- To give wise and vigorous leadership to us and to all whom Duke University influences. In rendering the largest permanent service to the individuals, the state, the nation, and the church.

- We dedicate every sanctum to the administrator's responsibility and property of Duke University.

- In the knowledge that no leader can achieve without cooperation, and that cooperation without integrity and character is vain. We dedicate ourselves, one and all, to Christ and to the way of life which He taught. And now under the blessed and only sovereign, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to Him the honor and eternal dominion. (church choir singing) (bell ringing) (bell ringing) (bell ringing)
