- In the name and spirit of our Lord, Jesus the Christ, I greet you on this blessed night, this holy night, this Christmas Eve. We gather here to rejoice over the coming of our Lord to this earth, for Christmas happened and Christmas happens right now right here where we are. And so may the spirit of Christ come very close just now to remind us of God's most precious gift to us. May the spirit of Christ come very close just now to bind us to one another with a love that knows no end. May the spirit of Christ come very close just now to draw us ever closer to the God who loves us and comes to us. We gather this night to celebrate a promise, a promise from God in Christ that brings light in the midst of our darkness, hope to those who are in despair, release, pray God, to those who are in captivity, joy to us in the midst of our sorrow, life that overcomes even our death. Yes, we come together tonight to celebrate life, the life that Christ brought and lived, that Christ gives, and that Christ promises forever. This is the time and the occasion to celebrate the good news. My dear friends, I invite you now to join with the choir as we join with all the saints of all the ages to sing, sing and rejoice and celebrate for God is in us, God is with us, God is among us. - Beloved in Christ, at this Christmas Eve, let it be our desire and our delight to hear again the message of the angels who spoke the good news long ago, and let us in heart and mind go even unto Bethlehem and see this glorious event which has come to pass and behold the babe lying in a manger. Therefore, let us read and hear from Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the times of Isaiah even unto the glorious redemption brought for us by the child. And so now in his spirit and with his love in us, let us offer to God our prayers. O God, we pray for the needs of the whole world, for peace on earth and goodwill among all your people, for unity and understanding within the church Christ came to build. O God, we remember in the name of Christ the poor and helpless, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed, the sick and those who mourn, the lonely and unloved, the aged and the little children, all those who need love and care and healing and health in this mortal life. And then, O God, we remember all those who rejoice with us in the good news of the coming of the Christ child, that multitude without number, those whose hope is fulfilled in the word made flesh, and all those with whom we are one now and forevermore. Come very near now, O God, and warm our hearts with your divine loving, sustaining presence. We wait as little children to sing and rejoice together. Give us hearts and voices of one sound and mind to receive and to share your love this night and tomorrow and all the tomorrows yet to be. We offer this prayer and the prayer which Christ taught us, saying.

- Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. - Christ's birth and kingdom are foretold by Isaiah. "There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, "and a branch shall grow out of his roots. "And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, "the spirit of wisdom and understanding, "the spirit of counsel and might, "the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. "And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. "He shall not judge by what his eyes see "or decide by what his ears hear, "but with righteousness, he shall judge the poor "and decide with equity for the meek of the earth. "And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, "and with the breath of his lips, he shall slay the wicked. "Righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist "and faithfulness the girdle of his loins. "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. "Those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, "on them has light shined. "Thou has multiplied the nation. "Thou hast increased its joy. "They rejoice before thee as with joy at the harvest, "as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. "For the yoke of his burden and the staff for his shoulder, "the rod of his oppressor, "thou hast broken as on the day of Midian. "For to us, a child is born. "To us, a son is given.
