

- God be with you. I love you. God loves you. And so, as we now conclude this blessed sacrament of our Lord, and as we, ministers exchange the peace with one another, and with some of you, I invite you to join in this experience with those around you, as we exchange the peace and the love of God with one another. (air whooshing) (gentle orchestral music) (singing in foreign language)

- Go out in peace to serve God and your neighbor in all that you do. (indistinct) The blessing of Almighty God, father, son and Holy Spirit is with you always. (singing in foreign language) (bell dinging) (gentle orchestral music)
